LONG DISTANCE SERVICES
RATES, TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Application of Rates, Terms and Conditions

- 1.1 The rates, terms and conditions contained within this document, hereinafter referred to as "Rates, Terms and Conditions," are applicable to the provision of Interstate Long Distance Service and International Long Distance Service, hereinafter collectively or individually referred to as "Service", by Horry Telephone Long Distance, Inc., hereinafter referred to as the "Company", as specified herein. Service is furnished subject to the availability of facilities and subject to transmission, atmospheric and like conditions. By accepting Service from the Company, the Customer accepts these Rates, Terms and Conditions as a binding agreement between the Customer and the Company.
- 1.2 These Rates, Terms and Conditions are incorporated by reference in the Horry Telephone Long Distance, Inc. Long Distance Services Agreement (Long Distance Services Agreement). The Long Distance Services Agreement and the Rates, Terms and Conditions together comprise the rates, terms and conditions applicable to the provision of Interstate Long Distance Services and International Long Distance Services by the Company. A copy of the Long Distance Service Agreement is attached at the beginning of this Rates, Terms and Conditions document. In the event there is a conflict between terms and conditions in the Long Distance Services Agreement and the Rates, Terms and Conditions, the terms and conditions in the Long Distance Services Agreement shall apply.
- 1.3 The Company may change Rates, Terms and Conditions, including the incorporated Long Distance Service Agreement, from time to time. Changes in rates, terms and conditions are effective no sooner than fifteen (15) days after the Company posts on its web site modifications to the Rates, Terms and Conditions Document reflecting the changes. The Company will also notify Customers of increases by bill message, bill insert or other reasonable commercial method at least fifteen (15) days prior to the effective date for the increases. Advance notice does not apply to increases in taxes and other charges described in Section 4.1(d) of the Rates, Terms and Conditions. The Company may decrease rates and charges without providing advance notice. Use of the Company's service after the fifteen (15) day notice period shall be construed as your agreement to the changed rates, terms and conditions.
- 1.4 The provision of such Service by the Company as set forth in these Rates, Terms and Conditions does not constitute a joint undertaking with the Customer for the furnishing of any Service.
- 1.5 The Rates, Terms and Conditions contained herein are not applicable to Intrastate Long Distance Service. The Company provides Intrastate Long Distance Service under Horry Telephone Long Distance, Inc. South Carolina Tariff No. 1 (HTLD SC Tariff No. 1) filed with the Public Service Commission of South Carolina. Notwithstanding the inapplicability of the Rates, Terms and Conditions to Intrastate Long Distance Service, the rates for certain Intrastate Long Distance Services tariffed in HTLD SC Tariff No. 1 may or may not be the same as rates for the corresponding Interstate Long Distance Service under the Rates, Terms and Conditions. HTLD SC Tariff No. 1 may be viewed at the Company's offices.

RATES, TERMS AND CONDITIONS

2. Definitions

Certain terms used throughout these Rates, Terms and Conditions are defined as follows:

Access Code

A sequence of numbers that, when dialed, connect the caller to the Provider associated with that sequence.

Application for Service

A standard order form which includes all pertinent billing, technical, and other descriptive information which will enable the Company to provide the Service as required.

Automatic Number Identification (ANI)

The term "ANI" (automatic number identification) refers to the delivery of the calling party's billing number by a local exchange carrier to any interconnecting carrier for billing or routing purposes and to the subsequent delivery of such number to end users (as defined for purposes of the FCC's Part 64, Subpart P, calling party telephone number, §§64.1600 through 64.1604). These Rates, Terms and Conditions also utilize ANI to mean an individual customer telephone number.

Billed Party

The person or entity responsible for payment of the Company's Service for an Operator Services Call, as follows:

- (1) in the case of a Calling Card or Credit Card call, the holder of the calling card or credit card used by the Customer; and
- (2) in the case of a Collect or Third Party call, the person responsible for the local telephone service at the telephone number that agrees to accept charges for the call.

Business Customer

A Business Customer is a Customer whose use of the Company's Service is of a business, professional, institutional or otherwise occupational nature who is also designated as a business customer for purposes of local exchange telephone service by the Customer's Local Exchange Carrier.

Calling Card Calls

A call for which charges are billed, not to the originating telephone number, but to a telephone calling card issued either by a local exchange or long distance telephone company for this purpose.

Calling Card Service

Calling Card Service is a Long Distance Service provided by the Company through use of a Company-issued calling card, the HTLD Calling Card, to make Interstate Long Distance Service and International Long Distance Service calling card calls through the use of a specific "1-800" toll free telephone number provided by the Company for access to the Calling Card Service.

2. Definitions (Cont'd)

Call Splashing

The transfer of a telephone call from one provider of operator services to another such provider in such a manner that the subsequent provider is unable or unwilling to determine the location of the origination of the call and, because of such inability or unwillingness, is prevented from billing the call on the basis of such location.

Collect Call

A call for which charges are billed, not to the originating telephone number, but to the destination or termination telephone number.

Company

Horry Telephone Long Distance, Inc., unless the context indicates otherwise.

Customer

Any individual, partnership, association, trust, corporation, cooperative or governmental agency or other entity which utilizes the Services provided by the Company. A Customer, as set forth herein, is responsible for the payment of charges and for compliance with all applicable terms of the Company's Rates, Terms and Conditions.

Customer Dialed Calling Card Call

A Calling Card Call which is dialed by the Customer and may or may not require intervention by an attended operator position to complete.

Customer - Provided Facilities

The term "Customer - Provided Facilities" denotes all communications facilities provided by the Customer and/or authorized user other than those provided by HTLD, including but not limited to terminal equipment.

Direct Dialed Call

The term "Direct Dialed Call" denotes a telephone call which is automatically completed and billed to the telephone number from which the call originated without the automatic or live assistance of an operator. This includes calls forwarded by call forwarding equipment. Direct Dialed Calls are also referred to as Station-to-Station calls.

Domestic

Domestic points include all fifty (50) states and all U.S. territories and possessions as defined in the Communications Act of 1934, and as amended by the Telecommunications Act of 1996, and as further defined by the Federal Communications Commission in their orders.

4. Payment and Credit Regulations4.1 Payment of Charges

- (a) Customer shall pay for all charges invoiced for usage of the Company's Service hereunder. All bills are due as stated in the Customer's bill statement.
- (b) Once Service is activated, Customer is liable for the payment of all usage charges for Services to be provided by the Company to Customer.
- (c) Charges associated with usage shall be billed in arrears.
- (d) In addition to payment for Services, Customer must pay all taxes, fees, surcharges and other charges that the Company bills Customer. Taxes and surcharges will be in the amounts that federal, state and local authorities require the Company to bill Customer. The Company will not provide advance notice of changes to taxes and surcharges, except as required by applicable law.
- (e) In the event the Company must employ the Services of attorneys for collection of charges due under these Rates, Terms and Conditions and any separate contract for special Services, Customer shall be liable for all costs of collection including a reasonable attorney's fee.
- (f) It is the intention of the Company to conform strictly to applicable laws.

4.2 Security for Payment(a) Authorization to Obtain Credit Information

The Company reserves the right to require all Customers to establish credit worthiness to the reasonable satisfaction of the Company. Upon application for Service, Customer shall be deemed to have authorized the Company to obtain such routine credit information and verification as the Company shall require in accordance with its then existing credit policies.

(b) Deposit

Prior to Service activation or any permitted assignment, the Company reserves the right to require any Customer whose credit worthiness has not been established to the reasonable satisfaction of the Company to make a deposit to guarantee payment of charges. After Service activation, if Customer's recurring charges are usage sensitive and Customer's actual monthly usage exceeds Customer's estimated monthly usage by more than 25% an additional deposit may be required.

4.2 Security for Payment (Cont'd)

(b) Deposit (Cont'd)

- (1) The total amount of any security deposit, if required by the Company, shall be a maximum of the Customer's estimated charges for two (2) months' service. Deposits may be applied against any bill(s) owed by Customer to the Company for Interstate Long Distance Service, Intrastate Long Distance Service and International Long Distance Service, to the extent that such bill(s) are unpaid more than thirty (30) days after the bill date.
- (2) After the initial thirty (30) days, a deposit will accrue interest at a rate not to exceed the rate required under applicable state law for deposits.
- (3) A deposit will be returned by the Company under the following circumstances:

When an application for Service has been cancelled prior to Service activation, the deposit will be applied to any existing charges incurred in accordance with the provisions of the Rates, Terms and Conditions. The Company agrees to refund the excess portion of the deposit, if any, within thirty (30) days following settlement of Customer's account.

Upon the discontinuance of Service, the Company will refund Customer's deposit to the extent that it exceeds any unpaid charges for installation and Service to Customer.

- (4) The unused portion of a deposit and accrued interest will be refunded if Customer has demonstrated its credit worthiness by paying each and every bill rendered by the Company for Service within the designated payment period for each of the twelve (12) months following the tender of such deposit.
- (5) The refunding or crediting of Customer's deposit, and accrued interest, in no way relieves Customer from complying with all terms and provisions contained in the Rates, Terms and Conditions or from tendering payments when due.

4.3 Termination or Denial of Service by the Company

In the event of nonpayment of any bill rendered or any required deposit, the Company may, after written notice, suspend Customer's Service. The Company may, immediately and without notice to Customer, and without liability of any nature, temporarily deny, terminate, or suspend Customer's Service:

- (a) in the event Customer or Customer's agent: (i) willfully damages the Company's equipment, interferes with use of the Company's Service by other customers of the Company; (ii) unreasonably places capacity demands upon the Company's facilities or Service; or (iii) violates any statute or provision of law, or any rule or regulation of any state or federal regulatory agency relating to communications; or (iv) otherwise fails to comply with the provisions of the Rates, Terms and Conditions or applicable law; or
- (b) in the event Customer becomes insolvent, is the subject of any formal legal proceeding commenced in a court involving a voluntary or involuntary petition or proceeding in bankruptcy, seeks protection or relief from creditors in a formal legal proceeding after a filing for such relief, or executes an assignment for the benefit of creditors; or
- (c) in the event that the Company determines that any Service is being used fraudulently or illegally, whether by Customer or Customer's agent.

4.4 Customer's Liability in the Event of Denial of Access to Service by the Company

In the event Customer's Service is disconnected by the Company for any of the reasons stated in Section 4.3, Customer shall be liable for all unpaid charges due and owing to the Company associated with the Service. Customer's deposit and accrued interest shall be applied to all cancellation charges applicable to the Service offering received by Customer.

4.5 Reinstitution of Service

If Customer seeks reinstatement of Service following denial of Service by the Company, Customer shall pay to the Company prior to the time Service is reinstated (1) all accrued and unpaid charges, and (2) a deposit per section 4, subparagraph 4.2(b)(1) in order to reinstate Service.

4.6 Billing Disputes

If Customer believes Customer has been billed by the Company in error, Customer must contact the Company within sixty (60) days of the date of the bill which contains the disputed charge. Refunds or adjustments will not be issued for any charge that is more than sixty (60) days old at the time Customer notifies the Company. Customer may withhold from payment to the Company the disputed portion of any bill pending resolution of the dispute. Customer must pay all non-disputed charges on the bill by the due date indicated on the bill. The Company will notify Customer of the results of its inquiry, and either adjust the billing, issue a credit, or notify Customer that all or a portion of the disputed amount is still owed. Customer will be required to pay such amount within fifteen, (15) days thereafter, and if Customer fails to pay this amount within the time required, Customer's account will be deemed past due and unpaid and Customer's Service subject to termination under Section 4.3 above. Any payments Customer withholds pending resolution of the dispute may be subject to a late payment charge at the highest interest rate allowable by law applied to past due amounts.

4.7 Right to Backbill for Improper Use of the Company's Services

Any person or entity which uses, appropriates or secures the use of Services from the Company, whether directly or indirectly, in any unlawful manner or through the providing of any misleading or false information to the Company and which use, appropriation, or securing of Services is inconsistent with the stated uses, intents and purposes of the Rates, Terms and Conditions or any restrictions, conditions, and limitations stated herein, shall be liable for an amount equal to the accrued and unpaid charges that would have been applicable to the use of the Company's Services actually made by a Customer.

5. Interstate Long Distance Service

5.1 Types of Offerings

Direct Dialed Interstate Long Distance Service is available at the rates listed in Section 9 and Interstate Operator Service is available at the rates listed in Section 9. Calling Card Service, 800 Express Service, Directory Assistance and Operator Services are also available at rates listed in Section 9.

(a) Determination of Duration

- (1) For Direct Dialed, Calling Card, Operator Services and 800 Calls, chargeable time begins when the connection is established between the calling station and the desired telephone, attendant board, or private branch exchange console. For Person-to-Person calls, chargeable time begins when the designated party comes on the line, or when the caller agrees to speak with a substitute party.
- (2) Chargeable time ends when the connection is terminated.
- (3) Chargeable time does not include the time lost because of faults or defects in the Service.

(b) Determination of Time of Day

- (1) Standard, Discount, and Economy, or Day, Evening, and Night/Weekend times are determined by the local time of the location of the rate center of the calling service point. Chargeable time for a rate period (e.g. 7 a.m. – 7 p.m.) begins with the first stated hour (7 a.m.) and continues to, but does not include, the second stated hour (7 p.m.). The rate applicable at the start of chargeable time at the calling station applies to the entire call. If a call begins in one discount period and ends in another, the initial period discount applied is the discount in effect at the time the call is established. The charge for each additional minute of usage is the additional minute billing rate of the rate period in which the beginning of each minute occurs.
- (2) The Evening rate applies to the holidays listed below unless a lower rate period is in effect.

Holiday	Date
- New Year's Day	January 1
- Independence Day	July 4
- Labor Day	Variable
- Thanksgiving Day	Variable
- Christmas Day	December 25

7. Operator Services

7.1 General

The Company provides Operator Services for telephone calls initiated from its Customers' locations through contractual relationships with interstate and international service providers. Operator Services provided by the Company include Interstate Operator Services and International Operator Services

7.2 Responsibilities of the Company for Operator Services

In addition to the responsibilities of the Company established elsewhere in the Rates, Terms and Conditions, the following responsibilities of the Company apply to Company provision of Operator Services.

- (a) The Company shall identify itself, audibly and distinctly, to the Customer at the beginning of each telephone call and a second time before the Customer incurs any charge for the call.
- (b) The Company shall permit the Customer to terminate the telephone call at no charge before the call is connected.
- (c) The Company shall disclose immediately to the Customer, upon request and at no charge to the Customer,
 - (1) a quote of its rates or charges for the call;
 - (2) the methods by which such rates or charges will be collected; and
 - (3) the methods by which complaints concerning such rates, charges, or collection practices will be resolved.

7.3 Responsibilities of the Customer for Operator Services

In addition to the responsibilities and obligations of the Customer established elsewhere in the Rates, Terms and Conditions, the following responsibilities apply to Customer use of Company provided Operator Services.

- (a) The Customer is responsible for compliance with the applicable regulations set forth in these Rates, Terms and Conditions.
- (b) The Customer is responsible for establishing his, her or their identity as often as necessary during the course of a call.
- (c) The Customer is responsible for identifying the station, party, or person with whom communications is desired and/or made at the called number.
- (d) The Customer is responsible for providing the Company with a valid method of billing for each call. The Company reserves the right to validate the credit worthiness of users through available credit card, calling card, called number, third party telephone number and room number verification procedures. Where a requested billing method cannot be validated, the user may be required to provide an acceptable alternate billing method or the Company may refuse to place the call.

7.4 Billing Arrangements

(a) Collect, Calling Card and Third Party Calls

Charges for calls of this type will be included on the Billed Party's regular local telephone bill pursuant to billing and collection agreements established by the Company or its intermediary with the applicable telephone company or a bill issued directly by the Company or its billing and collection agent or clearing house. Individual types of billing arrangements may not be available for all types of Operator Services. Where a billing arrangement is not available for a call, the Company will not provide Operator Service.

(b) Credit Card Calls

Charges for credit card calls will be included on the Billed Party's regular monthly statement from the card-issuing company. Where a billing arrangement is not available for the Company to bill for charges to a credit card, the Company will not provide Operator Service with respect to credit card calls.

(c) Unanswered Calls

The Company will not bill for unanswered calls in areas where Equal Access is available, nor will the Company knowingly bill for unanswered telephone calls where Equal Access is not available. In the event that an unanswered call is inadvertently billed due to the unavailability of Equal Access, the Company will cancel or refund all such charges upon request of the Billed Party. Any call for which the billed duration exceeds one minute shall be presumed to have been answered.

(d) Call Splashing

The Company will not engage in Call Splashing, unless the Customer requests to be transferred to another provider of Operator Services, the Customer is informed prior to incurring any charges that the rates for the call may not reflect the rates from the actual originating location of the call, and the Customer then consents to be transferred.

8. Other Services

8.1 Calling Card

The Company issues the Horry Telephone Long Distance (HTLD) Calling Card, and also allows Customers to utilize the line-based Calling Cards of other local exchange carriers. Different pricing applies to the utilization of other carriers' line-based Calling Cards. Rates are listed in Section 9, herein.

8.2 800 Service

(a) Description of Service

800 Service is a one-way inbound service originating on feature group facilities provided by the Company and terminating on a regular line. This Service enables the Customer to receive calls which are toll-free to the originating party. The Customer is responsible for payment of all charges associated with calls so terminated.

(b) Express 800 Service

The Company's 800 Service offering is called "Express 800 Service." Express 800 Service rates are listed in Section 9, herein.

8.3 Directory Assistance

(a) Directory Assistance Number Lookup

Interstate Directory Assistance Number Lookup service is obtained by dialing 1-NPA-555-1212 from a line presubscribed to the Company for InterLATA interexchange service. Rates for Directory Assistance Number Lookup are listed in Section 9, herein.

(b) Directory Assistance Call Completion Service

In conjunction with Directory Assistance Number Lookup, Customers may request Directory Assistance Call Completion Service. Call Completion Service is the completion of dialing for the number obtained in response to a Customer Directory Assistance number lookup request. Call Completion requires Customer request. Charges for Call Completion Service are in addition to the charge for Directory Assistance Number Lookup. Charges for Call Completion include a per-request charge and usage charges for the call.

8.4 Prepaid Calling Card

(a) Regulations

The Prepaid Calling Card Service is offered by the Company and provides the Customer with access twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week to prepaid toll calls originated within the United States through a Company specified access code to specific countries identified in Section 9, herein. Once made, the call is transferred via automated assistance for completion by the Company and charged against a prepaid card with an available balance on a unit basis. Each unit is equal to one minute. Customers are notified of their remaining card balance each time a call is placed and are notified during a call when the balance is about to be depleted.

Each unit is priced at the prevailing rate as set forth in Section 9, herein. The expiration date is a maximum of twelve (12) months from the date of first use of the Prepaid Calling Card. Payment by the Customer for the Prepaid Calling Card Service is due in advance or upon receipt of the prepaid card. While the Company will not refund any unused units, the Company reserves the right to recall all unused Prepaid Calling Cards and refund to Customers any remaining balances on the recalled cards.

Prepaid Calling Card Service can be accessed through a touchtone telephone only.

Calls to 700 and 900 numbers, all operator services calls, busy line verification and interrupt services, calls requiring the quotation of time and charges, and conference calls may not be completed with the Company's Prepaid Calling Card Service.

The Customer assumes complete liability for the card in the event it is lost, stolen or if unauthorized use of the card has occurred.
