
Windows Live Mail Configuration

1. Open Windows Live Mail.
2. Switch to the Accounts tab and click on Email.

3. Enter the following information:
 - a. In the Email address box, enter your full sccoast.net email address.
 - b. In the Password box, enter your email password. Ensure the check box next to Remember this password is selected.
 - c. In the Display name box, enter your name.
 - d. Click Manually configure server settings and then click Next.

Windows Live Mail

Configure server settings

If you don't know your email server settings, contact your ISP or network administrator.

Incoming server information

Server type:

Server address: Port:

☒ Requires a secure connection (SSL)

Authenticate using:

Ligon user name:

Outgoing server information

Server address: Port:

☒ Requires a secure connection (SSL)

☒ Requires authentication

Cancel Back Next

4. Provide the following information on the Configure server settings page:
 - a. Under Server type, select IMAP or POP. *IMAP is recommended.
 - b. In the Incoming mail server box, enter the following server name:

IMAP: imap.sccoast.net

Port: 993

Click Requires a secure connection (SSL).

Under Authenticate using, select Clear text.

POP: pop.sccoast.net

Port: 995

Click Requires a secure connection (SSL).

Under Authenticate using, select Clear text.

- c. In the Outgoing mail server (SMTP) box, enter the SMTP server name:

SMTP: smtp.sccoast.net

Port: 465 or 587

Click Requires a secure connection (SSL) and Requires authentication.

- d. In the Logon user name box, enter your full sccoast.net email address.
e. Click Next.

5. Congratulations! Your sccoast.net email account has now been added. Click Finish.